BULLETIN

For Your Consideration

Rabbi Mark Dov Shapiro

2007 has arrived, and it brings along several exciting opportunities for our community.

First, after a very successful Fall for adults learning Hebrew at Sinai, we are offering a new semester of Hebrew language. If you would like to ask the Four Questions in Hebrew this Passover, our Hebrew program is for you. We'll be offering four different classes on three different days of the week so that you can study Hebrew when and how you wish. Over 75 people studied Hebrew this past Fall. If you missed out in September, this is your chance at any level.

There is more in store for Sinai.

Our Israel Travel Group is starting to take shape for the July 2007 trip. I've got a terrific DVD to show those of you who are interested. Scholarships are available. A detailed itinerary can also be read on our website. I'd love to share the Israel experience with you.

And if you are a woman, Sinai wants to offer you something special. Back in November, over 40 women gathered for a fascinating morning of conversation with Rabbi Nancy Flam. The group looked at Torah from the perspective of women and many of those present expressed interest in more opportunities for women to be together. So, here is the invitation. If you are interested in more women's learning, in a visit to the new mikveh in Boston, in an evening of mah jongg, or in a woman's Seder, please let me know.

Finally, our Religious School is contemplating an exciting change for the 2007-2008 school year. We believe we can enrich our children's experience of Judaism by restructuring our Sunday mornings. Sheila Shear mentioned the idea in her December bulletin article and she enlarges on the proposal this month. In brief, the idea is to go to a Single Session on Sundays next year. We would bring all students from Kindergarten through Seventh Grade together at the same time. In addition to our regular curriculum, we would offer Hebrew, several enrichment activities, plus some time for community building. I think the idea is totally terrific. Please read Sheila's article in this Bulletin and come to the parent meeting we'll be having this month to learn more about Single Session Sundays!

Message from the President Steve Weiss

I wanted to let everyone know about some recent, very positive developments concerning Sinai's Cemetery.

About two years ago we realized that the perpetual care fund was not generating enough income to meet current operating expenses. We also realized that the problem needed to be fixed because, if left unsolved, the cash flow problems would become worse over time. So last year the Cemetery Committee investigated how best to remedy the situation. One obvious measure was to reduce expenses where possible, without diminishing the aesthetics of the cemetery. Second, and more significantly, we realized that the Cemetery had more land than we'd likely ever need. So, with the support of the Board of Directors, the Cemetery Committee undertook a quiet sales effort. Obviously, we were extremely conscious that the Sinai Cemetery is a spiritual, indeed sacred, place, and we took care to ensure that any sale would not be disruptive.

I'm pleased to advise that in December we sold an undeveloped portion of the Cemetery land. The net proceeds have been deposited into the perpetual care fund. The sale, coupled with reductions in operating expenses, brings us a long way toward our goal of making sure that the Cemetery has sufficient funds to provide for perpetual care and maintenance, so that we can fulfill our fiduciary duties to our congregants, past, present and future. So the next time you visit the Cemetery, you may notice the change, but I think you'll agree that the Cemetery continues to be a special space.

Special thanks in this complicated endeavor go to the Cemetery Committee, and especially to Dave Roberts, whose financial analysis and projections discovered the problem before it became a crisis. I also want to express my gratitude to my partner, Steve Shatz, who handled the legal work to complete the sale without any charge.

The Sinai Temple Bulletin is published monthly by Sinai Temple, Springfield, Massachusetts. This is Issue Number 2 for the year 2006-2007.

From the Director of Education Sheila Shear

Shalom Chaverim,

Last month I wrote about working with a committee of parents in an ongoing process of new and creative ways for children to be engaged while learning here at Sinai Temple. We have been working on a way to change from two sessions of school each Sunday, to a Single Session. The subcommittee working on Single Session Sunday continues to work diligently on a plan to make learning at Sinai Temple Religious School a wonderful experience for our students. What are our goals for making this change?

1. Community. Having students in the building at the same time will allow a higher level of engagement in full school and inter-grade activity and learning. We can offer family programming that is more inclusive, fun and interesting and integrate time for social clubs such as Alef Bet, Gimmel Dalet, Hey Vav and JOY into the offerings.

2. Enrichment. We will be able to include more practice for Hebrew skills as well as Chugim (interest groups) that would be of individual and age related interest such as music, art, School Newspaper, and even sports (all related to Judaism!) just to name a few. All of this, of course, with our talented teaching staff maintaining and expanding the integrity of our current program.

3. Convenience. Parents will have a single drop off and pick up. Sports and other extra curricular activities will be more easily reconciled with our proposed schedule.

Please join us on Sunday, January 28th to hear more, and share your thoughts. More information will follow shortly. If you would like to share your thoughts and ideas right now, we would love to hear them while we are in the planning stages of just what will be the right plan for Sinai Temple. Please speak to Joel Solomon, the chairperson of this sub committee (567-0073), or to me (736-3619).

L'Hitraot

Thinking Israel

On December 10, families from our Second Grade came together for a PACT program on Israel. The group created the following two poems along with a lot of other fun.

Israel is our Jewish homeland.
We saw horses, water, sun, and sand.
The trees are green and blue is the sea
Our trip to Israel brought us to the Galilee
So come join us in all of the fun.
We will see you by the wall in Jerusalem.

There once was a man named Abraham.
He was the first one to be Jewish which was kind of "newish."
He moved to a land that had lots of sand.
He played in the sun and had lots of fun.

Jewish Summer Camping Can Make All the Difference in Preparing a Jewish Child for the Future

Our Reform movement runs two remarkable summer camps in the Berkshires. One is called Eisner; the other is called Crane Lake. Last year several Sinai students attended each of the camps. Your child would love either camp. Scholarships are available for sessions in July or August. Please speak to Rabbi Shapiro as soon as possible.

Scholarships for Free

If your son or daughter is planning to attend any kind of Jewish program this summer, please take advantage of the Temple scholarship program. Thanks to the Joseph Emanuel, Rabbi Herman Eliot and Adele Biederman Snyder Memorial Fund, scholarships are available in small and larger amounts. We are also thankful to the family of Edna Simon and Judy and Michael Cohen who support summer scholarships as well.

Your confidential request should go to Rabbi Shapiro no later than March 15.

The Brotherhood is Seeking donations!

There will be no raffle this year. Instead, we will be having a Silent Auction and Buffet Supper. This is your chance for some free advertising! Well, cheap, anyway. For the price of your tax deductible donation, you will have a display card of your own design extolling the virtues of your business and be featured in the event program! We are accepting goods, services, gift certificates,

Scroll of Life

The Scroll of Life is a work of art in the Oneg Shabbat Room. It was created by Presentations Gallery of New York. The Isaiah quote at the bottom of the Scroll was taken from the Yom Kippur Haftarah as an expression of hope.

The Scroll has space on it so that Sinai members can commemorate either joyous events or memorialize loved ones. Each contribution of a plaque on the Scroll will be used to enrich the life and strength of Sinai.

The cost of each plaque is $200. The inscription may be 3-4 lines with a maximum of 27 spaces per line.

From the Brotherhood President Dan Cohn

Hinei Matov - 'How good it is' when brothers come together and celebrate! That is what we do every year when we present the Snyder Award to a deserving individual, we celebrate their generosity and selflessness. Some kind soul that embodies the true meaning of what Brotherhood stands for, a true mensch, someone who gives of themselves without even realizing or noticing their own generosity. Please join us on March 23 when we bestow this award on such a person, a person that we can not honor; a person that honors us through their acts.

February 4th is the next Brotherhood breakfast. Join us at 9:00 AM when we host a great speaker and have a fantastic time! As of this writing I have absolutely no idea who the speaker will be. If anyone has any suggestions, please let me know!

This will be followed on April 29th by another superb breakfast with another marvelous speaker! Please don't miss it!

Finally, on May 19th we will be holding a silent auction and dinner. We are still looking for donations for the auction. Any donations will be tax deductible and unless you specify that they are to be anonymous will have your name or business name presented with them. Please get in touch with me regarding any items that you wish to donate. Remember, this event is going to take the place of our annual raffle, so let's make it a good one!

Shalom, everybody!

The MICAH Award Dinner
Honoring Belle Rita Novak
Saturday, January 27
6 p.m.
At Sinai Temple

Sinai Temple is very pleased to join forces with the Pioneer Valley Project for a community dinner honoring Springfield citizens who exemplify the words of the Prophet Micah: What does the Lord require of you: to do justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God. For this fourth MICAH Dinner, Sinai is also honored to be the HOST CONGREGATION. The dinner will take place in our own building.

Our 2007 honoree will be BELLE RITA NOVAK.

To attend the dinner in honor of Belle Rita, please send a check for $30.00 per person to Pioneer Valley Project, 235 Eastern Avenue, Springfield, MA 01109. Make the check payable to PVP.

To make a donation in honor of Belle Rita, please send a check for any amount payable to Sinai Temple to 1100 Dickinson Street, Springfield, MA, 01108. We will collect all gifts and then pass them on to PVP in honor of Belle Rita.

Belle Rita is a life-time member of Sinai. She has been a member of the Social Action Committee for many years and was recently appointed to Sinai's Board of Trustees. Belle Rita has also been involved with the Forest Park neighborhood for over two decades. She initiated a program to clean up graffiti in the neighborhood and went on to become president of the Forest Park Civic Association for three years. Nine years ago she organized the Forest Park Farmers' Market, which meets every Tuesday afternoon from the first Tuesday in May through the last Tuesday in October. She has been the market manager since its inception. Many people say that the Market is the best thing to happen in Forest Park in 20 years! She has also worked hard (often against the odds) to maintain a grocery store in Forest Park. Our Sinai community as well as the larger Springfield community is enriched by her presence and her good deeds.

The Gilded Chamber:
A Sumptuous Novel of Queen Esther

If you liked The Red Tent, a new novel in the same spirit has just appeared. The Gilded Chamber by Rebecca Kohn fills in the Bible's gaps and imagines who Esther, the young Jewish woman, might have really been. What did Persia look like to her? How did she enter the world of the palace? How did she win the heart of the king?

The Gilded Chamber is available for sale in our Temple office from Monday to Friday and in the Temple library on Sundays.

Rebecca Kohn will be at Sinai Temple to discuss her book on Friday, March 2 as part of this year's Showcase Shabbat. Read the book now and be ready to meet the author of this fascinating saga. See you Friday, March 2 at Showcase!!

Two books have recently been published by the URJ (Union for Reform Judaism). A Christian Partner's Perspective on Raising a Jewish Family is written by Jim Keen who grew up as a Christian and maintains his Christian identity even though he is very committed to raising his children in a Jewish family. Another book published by the URJ is entitled Mingled Roots: A Guide for Grandparents of Interfaith Children. Both of these books are in our Temple library along with other books on intermarriage and Jewish parenting. You can also purchase URJ books on-line.
