BULLETIN

Take Back Your Time: Rediscover Shabbat

For Your Consideration

Rabbi Mark Dov Shapiro

Rosh Hashanah is in the air. Time for reflection. Time for Temple. Time to remember what Sinai Temple means in our lives.

Here are my responses to the question: What is Sinai Temple?

- Sinai is a teenager searching for his place in Judaism, asking questions, and beginning to find answers.
- Sinai is parents proudly anticipating their child's marriage and then joyously holding their first grandchild.
- Sinai is a young couple planning to raise their children in a community that welcomes them and nurtures them.
- Sinai is a congregant who becomes ill and receives the support and concern of the congregation.
- Sinai is a 13 year old girl becoming a Bat Mitzvah and proudly marching with the Torah next to her parents and grandparents.
- And Sinai is also the sound of the shofar, the solemnity of Kol Nidre, the dancing of Simchat Torah, and the warmth of Passover.
- Sinai is where we pray. We search for meaning and purpose through words and melodies as old as Jerusalem but as new as today.
- Sinai is where we learn. Children encounter the stories and festivities of Jewish life for the first time while adults explore the meaning of Torah as it pertains to real life in the modern world.
- Sinai is social action. We are committed to tikkun olam. Throughout the year, we are dedicated to fixing our world for the sake of justice.
- Sinai is community. We share sorrows and triumphs. We delight in children and take pride in members who maintain their commitment to us for a lifetime.
- Sinai is an address for Reform Judaism. It is an approach that combines modernity with tradition.
- Sinai is our address for Judaism.
- Sinai is our anchor for the values of Judaism, for caring, moral vision, and hope.
- Sinai Temple is about living. Sinai is about living our lives as Jews with joy.

I'm so proud to be rabbi of this great congregation. I look forward to being with "at Sinai" in the holiday season that begins this month.

Message from President Mark Stone

It is early August and hard to believe we are preparing for the upcoming High Holidays. It’s equally hard to believe that I am in my second year as President of the congregation. When I look back at this past year, I must say we have done a lot. Your board, clergy and committees have work very hard on our initiatives and I would like to say THANK YOU to all of them for their dedication to Sinai.

If you were at our annual meeting, we updated you as to how we are dealing with the challenges outlined in this past year’s communications. We are cautiously optimistic. It will take time!!! The success of our efforts in retention and recruitment won’t be known for some time, but things feel good. There is no doubt we cannot rest on feelings alone. We must convey to the entire congregation that affiliation with Sinai is necessary to ensure Reform Judaism has a place in the greater Springfield area for generations to come. These are our priorities for this coming year and we have been working diligently on them.

We have done many amazing things this past year, some internally, with wonderful programming and some externally with a wider reach than ever attempted. I am referring to our TRYASYNAOGUE program initiated here at Sinai. This idea of collaboration with our synagogue neighbors along with Federation and HGF is in full swing. The message I send to you is to consider those you might know who are unaffiliated and help me affiliate them!!! If they are empty nesters, ask them to leave the nest and try one of our fabulous programs. If they have never been affiliated or just lost their way, help me show them the way back to Reform Judaism. Our TRYASYNAGOGUE program is communicating as best we can with those we think are unaffiliated, but I am sure some of you out there know a few. We have tried to reduce the barriers that might exist with an unaffiliated Jew - whether the disconnect is financial or other. If you would like further information, go to our web site www.tyrasynagogue.org where upcoming events and our programs are explained.

As we enter the High Holiday season, I hope you will join me in making sure Sinai continues to thrive for years to come. My wife Melanie, my children Andrew and Lauren, and I wish you all the best in this New Year.

This service is free of charge to members and will not be limited to the High Holidays. It can also be used to listen in on any service (i.e. Bar/Bat Mitzvah, wedding or funeral) that Rabbi Shapiro and Cantor Levson lead from the bimah.

Notes about the Holidays

Prayers and Blessings for Your Home

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur begin at home with family meals. Your meal can become more than a pleasant dinner by making into a sacred occasion with the appropriate blessings for the holidays. Our website has everything you need in English, Hebrew, and transliteration. www.sinai-temple.org

Music for Your Home

High Holiday melodies that appear in our services are now available on the website. Listen and learn! www.sinai-temple.org

Two Rosh Hashanah Morning Services

8:45 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.....11:00 a.m. to 1:20 p.m.

Although the first service is definitely NOT going to be a Family Service, it will be a service that welcomes school age children because it will be briefer. The second service will be identical to our usual holiday morning services with Rabbi, Cantor, and the full liturgy.

Babysitting for Children through Kindergarten

Babysitting for small children ages two through Kindergarten (no infants) will be available during Rosh Hashanah morning and Yom Kippur morning services. Please contact the Temple office to reserve a spot for your child...736-3619.

Child Programming for Grades One & Two

An age appropriate program for children in Grades 1 and 2 will be available during both Rosh Hashanah morning services and Yom Kippur morning. (The program is being offered parallel to the first Rosh Hashanah morning service for parents of these young children who do not think the children would feel comfortable even in the shorter first service format of 90 minutes.) Please contact the Temple office to reserve a spot for your child...736-3619.

Children in Grades Three & Four (PLEASE NOTE - THIS IS NEW)

On Yom Kippur morning, we will be offering a service/program, designed for this intermediate age group. Too old for a children's program; often too young for the full adult service. More information will follow.

Children in Grades Five & Six (PLEASE NOTE - THIS IS NEW)

On Yom Kippur morning, we will NOT be offering a service/program for this age group. Experience from previous years and conversations with parents indicate that most parents believe their 5th/6th grader can attend the adult service. We welcome and encourage that!

Programming for Pre-Schoolers/Tots and Their Families (SOMETHING NEW)

Two new options for our youngest friends and their families. At 4:00 p.m. Rosh Hashanah afternoon (just before Tashlich), a service for the little people will be held at Laurel Pond in Longmeadow. On Yom Kippur afternoon, another service for young families will take place. This one in the sanctuary at 2 p.m. (Each service to last approximately 20-25 minutes.)

Visiting the Sinai Temple Cemetery

A NEW TIME

It is traditional to visit the cemetery during the High Holiday period. Temple members with loved ones buried at Sinai's cemetery are welcome to visit the cemetery for a service conducted by the Rabbi and Cantor on Sunday, September 12. PLEASE NOTE...In previous years this service has taken place at 2 p.m. THIS YEAR'S SERVICE WILL TAKE PLACE AT 1:00 p.m.

Link to Libraries

Link to Libraries is a non-profit organization founded in May 2008 by our Temple member, Susan Jaye-Kaplan, along with Janet Crimmins. Link to Libraries is a volunteer organization whose mission is to collect and distribute new books to public elementary schools and non-profit organizations in Western MA.

Sinai's Social Action Committee is going to "link" up with Link to Libraries this coming Rosh Hashanah evening. The titles of books that you might wish to sponsor and donate to Link to Libraries will be available on a bulletin board after services that night.

We will, of course, be inviting the congregation to purchase shoes for youngsters in need too. Shoes plus books will help us welcome the New Year with hope for a better tomorrow!

Allergy-sufferers Request

Please refrain from excessive use of perfumes and colognes when attending services and events at temple especially on the High Holidays.

Those with allergies can be adversely affected and become uncomfortable when exposed to strong scents.

When purchasing bima flowers for special occasions please be considerate of allergy-sufferers and order only non-scented arrangements.

Adult Opportunities

Torah Study Returns:

Bagels & Brains

Sex, War, and Property:

Torah Study with a Special Focus

Saturdays at 9 a.m.

The Torah Portion starting at Deuteronomy Chapter 21:10 contains more laws on more topics than any other Torah Portion. From sex to war to theft to family to the environment, everything is in these chapters from Deuteronomy.

If you are interested in any(!) of the topics above, Torah Study starting in October should be a major success.

The film features Benny Goodman, Al Jolson, Eddie Cantor, Judy Garland, and many more artists making some of America's great music. The film is being shown as part of the Senior Luncheon on September 30.

Message from Director of Education Sheila Shear

Shalom Chaverim,

As I sit here, with the temperature outside about 90 degrees, it is hard to imagine that when you read this, there will be only a couple of weeks until the first days of Religious School and Hebrew School. Each year brings with it opportunities for new beginnings, learning new things, in new ways, learning things you thought you knew but didn't, finding out what you don't know and making an effort to learn it.

I, along with the entire teaching staff, look forward to providing new opportunities for your children, and for your families. Please help us support your families' Jewish connection here at Sinai by participating in our family programming, by supporting and becoming involved in your children's Jewish learning, and sharing in making Sinai a place that your child wants to be.

On Sunday, September 12th during Religious School, we will be facilitating "age group" parent meetings to continue to plan opportunities for your children to make Sinai theirs. This is your opportunity to make your children's connection at Sinai what you want it to be. No one knows more about what will connect with your child than you do. Please join Rabbi, Cantor, me, and other members of the parent community at these meetings. See you then.

This year school begins after Rosh Hashanah. I hope that each child in our Sinai community will attend services and experience the beauty of the High Holidays here at Sinai.

L'Shanah Tova, may you be written in the book of life for a happy, healthy and successful 5771.

NEW Sinai Temple Initiative Underway: Outreach to Families with Young Children, birth to 5 years old

Shalom! My name is Melanie Courtemanche and I am the mother of an almost 2 ½ year old girl. As the parents of a young child, my husband, Ryan, and I are eager to be involved in the Sinai community through events that include our whole family as well as ones that are designed specifically with the interests and attention span of our inquisitive toddler in mind. I have been asked to officially head an initiative, working with others, to develop programming and events for our youngest members (and future members).

During the past year, families with young children celebrated Shabbat together monthly with a Tot service created especially for babies, toddlers, preschoolers, and young school-aged children. Each service was followed by Challah and juice, and we even had dinner together. It was a wonderful time for parents and children to get to know each other. We also had occasion to celebrate Havdalah and Tu B'Shevat together with a holiday-themed craft, snack, story, and music as well as an age-appropriate Havdalah service.

Planning is underway for the upcoming 5771 year. Don't let your little one miss out on Tot Shabbat, Bagels and Blocks, and other events for young children. Please contact me at mnkle17@gmail.com or 413-527-4723 or call the temple office at 413-736-3619 with your questions, comments, and ideas. Please be certain to include your address, home phone, and email. Together we can make this a wonderful year for our little ones at Sinai.

L'Shana Tova and see you at the Rosh Hashanah service for little ones at Laurel Park!

Melanie Courtemanche

Invite a Friend to Shabbat Services

People who are already Sinai Temple members know what an incredible synagogue community Sinai Temple is. They are always our best recruiters!

In that spirit, we encourage you to invite your friends to our Shabbat service on any Friday evening all through the year. There is no better way to introduce potential members to Sinai than to experience the joy, warmth and good feelings of our Friday evenings. Please ask your unaffiliated friends, family and neighbors to be with us on Friday evenings.

Attention Parents, Grandparents, and Friends of Little Ones

Do you have or know a young child who is not yet old enough for Sunday School, but eager to be a part of Sinai's community? There are many fun and exciting activities and events planned specifically for children aged 0-5 years old for this upcoming year.

Big Questions: Jewish Answers

Second Thursdays Every Month

Starting Thursday, October 14

From 6 to 7:30 p.m.

(With a "lite bite" available each evening)

Are you curious about Judaism? Are you curious about our tradition's approach toward major modern issues?

If you've got questions, this year Rabbi Shapiro and Cantor Levson will offer some answers. On the second Thursday of each month, come to Sinai. We'll feed you a light dinner and we'll take on one topic per month.

Here are some of this year's questions. You can come once, all the time, or once in a while. Each Thursday conversation will be self-contained.

October 14	What Does Judaism Say About the Role of Government? (In anticipation of the November election)
November 11	What Does Judaism Say About Homosexuality? (As the matter of same sex marriage winds its way through the courts)
December 9	What Does Judaism Say About the Beginning and the End of Life? (As the secular year comes to an "end")

Topics for the winter and spring will be announced in a few months.

The Mitzvah Habit: Help us feed the hungry

You can't miss it! Every time you enter the Temple, you see the box for THE OPEN PANTRY on the floor outside the Temple office. Sometimes the box is full; sometimes it's fairly empty. But every week the Open Pantry truck comes by to scoop up whatever the box contains and take it back to the Open Pantry.

You can help keep the box full. Here's how. Whenever you go shopping, buy an extra non-perishable food item. Then whenever you come to the Temple, bring along your food item and drop it in the box. If you're coming to a meeting or services, if you've got business in the office, if your child is coming to Religious School, start a new MITZVAH HABIT. Bring some food along and place it in the box for the OPEN PANTRY.

Preferred foods for the Open Pantry are: Canned tuna, chicken, sardines, cereals, peanut butter and nuts, canned and dried beans, soups, pasta, dry milk, instant formula, and canned food.
