Take Back Your Time: Rediscover Shabbat

For Your Consideration

Rabbi Mark Dov Shapiro

I received a phone call from Omaha the other day. A Christian who works at an interfaith campus combining a church, synagogue, and a mosque wanted to talk about last year's God Survey.

She wanted to know how and why we created the survey at Sinai. She was planning to use our survey in her "tri-faith" community.

A fascinating idea, I thought. But as we talked, I suggested that she read over our Sinai questions very carefully. My advice was that she shouldn't plan on simply transferring our vocabulary over to a multi-faith population. As "neutral" as I believe our survey wording was, I'm quite sure that faith and belief have very different nuances in different traditions. Christians and Moslems use many of the same words we Jews do, but the context and the understanding aren't the same.

Which leads to an interesting question for us at Sinai: What will the results of our new survey on Israel reveal about our own community?

Will we largely agree on the meaning of Israel in our lives? Will some of us be passionate supporters of Israel while others find Israel quite inscrutable? Will most of us be "pro-Israel?" or will we speak about Israel in cautious or even negative terms?

This Friday, November 2 after the 6 p.m. service and the dinner that follows I want to share the preliminary results of our Israel Survey with you. I'm eager to do so because, when we talk about Israel, we explore a different dimension of Jewish identity. If the God Survey focused on the spiritual, this Israel Survey takes us over to the ethnic, cultural side of Jewish life. For many Jews, this latter expression of Judaism is what works best. As you've probably said yourself many times, "I'm proud to be a Jew. I'm proud of our history."

Israel and its almost 65 year history may be a large or small aspect of your Jewish pride. On November 2, let's see what over 225 congregants think.

Let's consider what role Israel plays in making us the kind of Jews we are in 2012.

A Message from President Jeff Cossin

There is nothing more invigorating for me than observing and Kvelling over the youngsters and children in our STUFF program, TOT Shabbat, Shir Fun and Religious School. They are not only having fun but are actually enjoying Judaism. I was very proud of Shir Fun's singing during the Rosh Hashanah morning service. One could observe that there was spirituality in their participation. The STUFF kids danced around Cantor "Bim Bam" even as early as 8:30 am on Rosh Hashanah Morning! And then there was Erev Sukkot. We had nearly 140 people decorating our Sinai Sukkah. I thoroughly enjoyed being advised by many of the children as to where to hang the decorations! Kudos to Jennifer and Adam Metsch and Karen Mendelsohn and their teams for planning and carrying out that evening.

And now we are looking forward to our Chanukah celebration on December 14, 2012. Our community has a wonderful opportunity to reach out to our unaffiliated Jewish friends and invite them to Sinai on that evening. It promises to be lots of fun. We will have a wonderful opportunity to honor Howard Kalodner as he "retires" from his eight year stint as Bulletin Editor and nine years as Webmaster. Chanukah has become THE holiday to honor those individuals who have worked tirelessly for Sinai over many years as "unsung heroes."

As we go to deadline for this Bulletin I am thrilled to announce that there will be a very special show on December 16 starring many of the children in our Religious School. Sheri Levson has asked for our blessing to go ahead with this project and I was excited to say "YES". Our kids are learning new skills as well as experiencing Judaism. This is wonderful!

We will be interacting with the Baby Boomers over the next 2-3 months. Our goal is to engage with this very important cohort of individuals as they transition to new generational activities to see how Sinai can fit into their evolving lives. Calls from the Board and from Rabbi Shapiro and Cantor Levson as well as a written invitation will precede a series of Coffee Conversations. I will report on our experience later in the year.

Our Leadership Development initiative for 2012-2013 is well on its way. We are looking for congregants who would like to get more involved in the life of our Sinai Temple community. This does not necessarily mean we are only searching for future Presidents and Vice Presidents although that would be wonderful! I started 25 years ago on the Membership/Shalom Committee and then evolved to my current role as President. If you would like to play a small part in our Temple's life contact Michael Freedman at mikeandtricia@hotmail.com and tell him of your interest.

Our Raise the Roof Campaign has raised over $37, 300 from ONE HUNDRED and TWENTY TWO families as of October 5. I am thrilled with your response. We have more to raise so please send us your checks. ANY amount is welcome. Be part of this campaign: Help us raise the roof!

And finally, the Sinai 2015 Planning Group is meeting regularly and I will update you later in the year. Thank you for all of your positive compliments after my Rosh Hashanah remarks. Everyone seems to understand the seriousness of our situation. You can help by recruiting new members to our Congregation. Call our Temple office at 736-3619 with names of prospective members and we will take over from there!

Welcome to New Members:

Richard and Schmuel Condon

Please note - This bulletin is an eight week bulletin
- covering November AND December 2012.

JUDAICA SHOP CORNER

Chanukah is coming early in December and we will have a wonderful, innovative selection of toys, games and novelties for all.

Lovely menorahs, traditional, modern and themed are on the way to us!

Do stop by and see our changing displays as all the new items come in.

Notes from the Cantor

There are two HUGE musical events coming up soon here at Sinai Temple! You won't want to miss these occasions of music and fun!

First, mark your calendars for Friday, November 30, as our friends Sababa! return to Springfield. Sababa! was with us back in the spring of 2010, and I am thrilled to welcome Steve Brodsky, Scott Leader, and Robbi Sherwin back to Sinai Temple! They will help lead our Shabbat worship service with their upbeat, participatory style of music. Joining in on the fun will be our Adult Volunteer Choir, "No Harry, Just Jews," and of course "Shir Fun," who have been singing a number of Sababa! tunes for the past few years. Sababa! will be releasing their third CD very soon. Here is what I wrote a few years ago about their first CD: "Pray for the Peace is truly an example of the whole being greater than the sum of the parts. The individual parts, mind you, are excellent: Robbi, Scott, and Steve are each talented, accomplished musicians and songwriters in their own right. The songwriting and the production values on this CD are of the highest quality. But it's those beautiful 3-part harmonies that truly take Sababa! to another level. Sababa! is the "Crosby, Stills, and Nash" (circa 1969) of the Jewish music world today." You can hear samples of their music on their website: <http://sababamusic.com/>

Second, make plans to be here in the Sinai Temple auditorium on Sunday morning, December 16 (the last day of Chanukah) for the musical theater adaptation of Eric Kimmel's beloved story, "Hershel and the Chanukah Goblins!" This delightful stage production will be performed by students of the Sinai Temple Religious School, and will be co-directed by myself and my talented wife, Sheri! This performance will be fun for the entire family, ages 2 to 102. Can the clever Hershel of Ostropol defeat the evil goblins who are threatening to end Chanukah forever? Can he outwit the terrible King of the Goblins? Come and find out on this last day of Chanukah 5773!

Ivdu et Hashem B'simcha! Serve the Holy One with Joy!

Hershel and the Chanukah Goblins!

A musical comedy based on the book by Eric Kimmel

Performed by students of Sinai Temple
Sunday, December 16th 11:00 am

Message from Heather Sullivan Director of Education

Shalom,

One of the goals that I had set out for myself when I accepted the position as the Director of Education was to build upon the sense of camaraderie at Sinai Temple. This spirit of community is what makes Sinai unique and inviting. A poignant moment for me occurred this summer. A mother came to me and said, "My daughter wants to do more here. My family is not religious but we are Jewish and my daughter asked to come to Hebrew School last year so I signed her up. Now she wants to join Shir Fun and attend services more often." Moments like these encapsulate why I have chosen to become more involved at Sinai.

When I am a student at Sinai, I feel secure in taking risks where my fellow classmates have so much in common with me. When I am a parent at Sinai, I understand my own children's sense of belonging as they become increasingly more involved. When I am a congregant at Sinai, I am amazed to see my peers spend hours of their time, volunteering because they care so much. When I am a teacher at Sinai, I witness the bonding between senior members of our congregation and Grade 8 students. When I am a Director at Sinai, I have pride in watching students and teachers alike laugh and learn together.

When I consider what will help to make this community even stronger, even closer, I can't help but remember my summers spent at a Jewish overnight camp in Maine. Without even attempting, the friendships form, the bonds secure, and the community is united.

That is what we have done at Sinai. Whether intentional or not, the camaraderie that our young people have forged, is from the safe environment and opportunity that we allow them. Being involved at Sinai means being part of that community. That is where the choice lies. How involved you and your family are is up to you. Whether you choose to belong is not up to you. You do belong.

Scholarships for Free

If your son or daughter is planning to attend any kind of Jewish program this summer, please take advantage of the Temple scholarship program. Thanks to the Joseph Emanuel, Rabbi Herman Eliot and Adele Biederman Snyder Memorial Fund, scholarships are available in small and larger amounts. We are also thankful to the family of Edna Simon and Judy and Michael Cohen who support summer scholarships as well.

Your confidential request should go to Rabbi Shapiro no later than March 1.

The Green Menorah: A Commitment to "green" Chanukah

When the Maccabees rededicated the Jerusalem Temple in 165 B.C.E., legend tells us that one days' worth of oil kept the Temple menorah going for eight days! What if the "miracle" of Chanukah led us to use less oil in our day? Can we help today's world conserve energy? Perhaps we can rethink all those bags for Chanukah gifts and food?

You will find the Chanukah candle blessings on page 16 of this Bulletin.

Chanukah Questions and Answers

When is Chanukah?

Chanukah begins Saturday night, December 8. The last candle is lit Saturday night, December 15.

How do we observe Chanukah today?

Chanukah is almost entirely a time for celebration, although it can be more than that. This year, for example, how about implementing the "tradition" of Ner Shel Tzedakah, which means dedicating one "ner/candle/night" to tzedakah. Make Friday, December 14 different by giving gifts of tzedakah.

How do we prepare the candles when Chanukah arrives?

How many candles are used?

On the first night of Chanukah one light is kindled. On the following night, two lights and so on until on the eighth night, eight lights are kindled. This does not, of course, include the shammas which is the candle used every night to light the other candles of the day.

Where does the chanukiah go?

If possible the chanukiah should go near or at a window. In this way passersby can see the burning candles, which means according to Jewish tradition, that we have helped in the process of Pirsom Ha-nais—the Publicizing of the Chanukah Miracle and Story.

How do we light the candles?

Just after nightfall, say the blessings. The first two are said every night. The third is only said on the first night.

After the blessings light the candles by going from left to right so that the additional light of each night is kindled first.

Do we do anything different on Shabbat - Friday evening, December 14?

Yes. On that night we light the chanukiah first and after that Shabbat candles are lit. However, for a really good time, don't light candles at home. Bring yourself and your candles to Temple for a 6 pm. service followed by dinner and an amazing Chanukah event.

Paper and Plastic Bags Contribute to Global Warming

Paper bags have the highest global warming impact per bag compared to other types of bags. 70% more global warming gasses are emitted making a paper bag than a plastic bag, and 50 times more water pollution. In 1999, Americans used 10 billion paper shopping bags, consuming 14 million trees.

Plastic bags are made from petroleum that could be used in other ways. The 300 billion plastic bags that American throw away each year are made from millions of barrels of petroleum.

How about reusable bags?

Reusable bags reduce all these costs by a factor of hundreds. So...before you "bag" it this Chanukah, please THINK GREEN.

What Time are Friday Evening Services?

Message from Philip Lesser, President, Men of Sinai

The Men Of Sinai have been very busy already this year. Starting with the barbeque to open religious school, helping to set up and take down the sukkah, to donating to the "Raise the roof" campaign and speakers like Belle Rita Novak and the Rabbi, we are not going to rest now. We also enjoyed our first annual golf outing at Franconia! We have again planned for another busy couple of months with several wonderful speakers such as Prof Samuel Kassow speaking about the Warsaw ghettos and Jennifer Levi from GLADD who helped write the legislation for same sex marriage in Massachusetts. "Hockey and Havdalah," family night out at the movies, and bowling are all coming soon.

Please look for these programs in the E-Vents, and join us. They are open to all, Men, Women, and families. You don't have to be a member to join in with our activities, just come and enjoy being part of the community and have some fun! We hope everyone enjoyed the Welcome Back Barbecue on the opening day of Religious School. More food to come during the upcoming year! If you have not joined Men Of Sinai yet there is still time. With more global and interesting topics, with more family events, don't miss out!

2012 Turkey Walk-off: On Friday November 23rd (the day after Thanksgiving)

The Men of Sinai will be hosting a family hike up Mount Holyoke in Skinner State Park. We will be meeting at Sinai Temple Parking Lot at 9:00 am and car pooling to the M&M trail head near route 47. Bring water, a camera and your favorite turkey sandwich lunch for a picnic at the summit. Everyone is welcome to join us; members and non-members, men, women and especially children. BLESSINGS FOR CHANUKAH ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו וצונו להדליק נר של חנוכה.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, who has sanctified us with commandments and commanded us to light the Chanukah candles.

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu Melech ha-olam asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav v'tzivanu l'hadlik neir shel Chanukah.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שעשה נסים לאבותינו בימים ההם בזמן הזה.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, who performed great wonders for our ancestors in those days at this season.

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu Melech ha-olam, sheh-ah-sah nee-seem la-vo-tay-nu ba-ya-meem ha-haim baz-man ha-zeh.

ברוך אתה, יי אלהינו, מלך העולם, שהחיינו וקיימנו והגיענו לזמן הזה.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, who has kept us alive, sustained us, and brought us to this time.

Baruch atah Adonai Eloheinu Melech ha-olam shehecheyanu ve-kee-ma-nu ve-hee-gee-ah-nu laz-man ha-zeh.
